

PLAN YOUR FIELD TRIP TO THE ARIZONA CAPITOL MUSEUM

Visit our website to book your tour, learn about traveling exhibits, view the standards covered on the tour path and access classroom-ready activities!

GUIDED MUSEUM TOURS

Free guided tours are available for groups of 10 or more and must be scheduled in advance. Tours have a limit of 60 people per tour. If your group is larger than 60, more than one time slot is required to accommodate the entire party. The tour curriculum supports Arizona Social Studies Standards with an emphasis on civics, history and government.

FREE EXPLORATION

Outside of guided tours, visitors are encouraged to explore exhibits or follow the self-guided map available at the information desk on the first floor. When guided tours are taking place, we ask that groups larger than five stay off the guided tour path. Exhibits on the first and fourth floors, as well as traveling exhibits in the second floor south wing, are always available for free exploration groups.

Groups are also welcome to visit the galleries of both legislative buildings outside of a guided legislative tour. In the event the legislature is in session, we ask that visitors please remain quiet while observing the proceedings.

If you wish to explore the museum independently, please call the Education Office at (602) 926-3810 so we can arrange for a Museum Educator to meet your group outside for an orientation before entry. *Please note students must be accompanied by chaperones at all times.

WESLEY BOLIN PLAZA

Wesley Bolin Plaza is located across 17th Avenue. Named after former Governor Wesley Bolin, the plaza features over 30 memorials commemorating events and people significant to Arizona and United States history. A map, scavenger hunt and audio tour of the plaza are available on our website.

GUIDED LEGISLATIVE TOURS

Following the museum tour, visitors have the option to add a guided 30-minute tour through one of the legislative buildings. Tours include an overview of Arizona's legislative process and information on how students can engage in civics.
